Page 3 — How to Use This Planner

- Step 1: Decide if you have one day or an overnight, then pick the matching plan page.
- Step 2: Check ferry and tram times on the Access page and build your timeline around them.
- Step 3: For Miyajima, glance at the Tide Notes — the famous gate and shrine look very different at high vs low tide.
- Tip: Mornings are quieter on the island; crowds build by midday.

Page 4 — Area Overview

- Hiroshima city: home to the Peace Memorial Park and Museum, a riverside downtown, and a reborn modern city center.
- Miyajima Island: a short ferry ride away, famous for its floating-style shrine gate, forested hills, and free-roaming deer.
- Getting around the city: trams (streetcars) and buses cover most sights.
- Typical split: half a day for the Peace Memorial area, half to a full day for Miyajima.

Must-decide	Your choice
One day or overnight?
Memorial first or island first?
Cable car / hike on island? (Y/N)

Page 5 — Access & Ferry Planner

Leg	Method	Depart	Arrive	Notes
Arrive in Hiroshima
City center → ferry port	tram / train / bus
Ferry to Miyajima	ferry
Return ferry	ferry
Back to base / station

- IC card: works on most trams, trains, and the ferry — handy to top up on arrival.
- Reminder: Confirm the last ferry and last tram times so you don't get stranded.

Page 6 — One-Day Plan

Time	Plan
Morning	Peace Memorial Park & Museum, then the riverside
Late morning	Tram to ferry port
Midday	Ferry to Miyajima, lunch on the island
Afternoon	Shrine gate, island streets, optional cable car or hill walk
Late afternoon	Return ferry, sunset over the bay
Evening	Hiroshima dinner (try the local savory pancake)
