JAPAN 2-WEEK ITINERARY & PLANNER

14 days, one classic route — yours to follow or remix.

Name: _____

Trip dates: ____ / ____ to ____ / ____

Travelers: ____ Style: ☐ Relaxed ☐ Balanced ☐ Packed

> A model route plus blank planning pages. Treat the plan as a starting point and confirm the latest official info as you go.

Page 2 — How to Use This Planner

This kit gives you a tested-style 2-week route through Japan's most-visited regions, then hands you blank pages to make it your own.

- Follow the model: use the 14-day route on pages 4-11 as written.
- Remix it: swap days, add a region, or slow the pace using the blank daily pages.
- Track everything: transit, budget, and accommodation pages keep details in one place.

Pacing tip: Don't move cities every single day. The model route groups nights by base city to cut down on packing and travel fatigue. Confirm current intercity train options and times when you book.

Days	Base	Focus
1-4	Tokyo	Arrival, city districts, day trip
5-8	Kyoto	Temples, gardens, traditional districts
9-11	Osaka	Food, modern city, day trips
12-13	Hiroshima	Peace memorial area, nearby island
14	Departure	Return toward exit airport

> Transfer days are built into the schedule. Distances are covered by fast intercity trains — check the latest routes, times, and whether a rail pass fits your plan.

My version of the route (edit here):

Page 4 — Days 1-2: Tokyo (Arrival & City)

Day 1 — Arrival

- Land, clear customs, set up transit (IC card / mobile)
- Travel to accommodation, check in, rest
- Easy first evening: nearby food, convenience-store basics

Day 2 — Central Tokyo

- Mix one busy district + one calm spot (park, garden, shrine)
- Try a counter-seat lunch
- Evening: a lively neighborhood for dinner

	Morning	Afternoon	Evening
Day 1
Day 2

Notes: _____

Page 5 — Days 3-4: Tokyo (Explore & Day Trip)

Day 3 — Neighborhoods

- Pick 2-3 contrasting districts (modern, retro, shopping, youth culture)
- Build in a sit-down break

Day 4 — Day trip from Tokyo

- Choose a nearby destination (mountains, coast, or historic town)
- Return to Tokyo for the night, or transfer toward Kyoto next morning

	Morning	Afternoon	Evening
Day 3
Day 4

Day-trip idea: _____

Page 6 — Day 5: Transfer to Kyoto

- Check out, store luggage if needed
- Take the intercity train to Kyoto (confirm time/route)
- Check in, gentle first afternoon nearby
- Evening stroll in a traditional district

	Morning	Afternoon	Evening
Day 5

Transfer notes (train, seat, luggage): _____

Page 7 — Days 6-7: Kyoto (Temples & Tradition)

Day 6 — Eastern temples & gardens

- Start early to beat crowds
- Walk between historic sites; tea or sweets break

Day 7 — Western/north Kyoto

- Famous gardens, bamboo, or hillside shrines
- Slow afternoon; traditional dinner

	Morning	Afternoon	Evening
Day 6
Day 7

Notes: _____

Page 8 — Day 8: Kyoto (Flex / Day Trip)

- Option A: nearby historic city day trip
- Option B: slow Kyoto day — markets, crafts, a museum
- Confirm hours and any timed entries in advance

	Morning	Afternoon	Evening
Day 8

My choice: _____

Page 9 — Days 9-10: Osaka (Food & City)

Day 9 — Transfer + Osaka food

- Short hop from Kyoto to Osaka (confirm route)
- Check in, then dive into a food district for dinner

Day 10 — Osaka highlights

- Modern districts, a landmark or two
- Street food crawl in the evening

	Morning	Afternoon	Evening
Day 9
Day 10

Must-eat list: _____

Page 10 — Day 11: Osaka (Day Trip)

- Nearby options: a castle town, a port city, or a nature spot

- Return to Osaka for the night

	Morning	Afternoon	Evening
Day 11

Day-trip idea: _____

Page 11 — Days 12-13: Hiroshima

Day 12 — Transfer + Peace Memorial area

- Intercity train to Hiroshima (confirm time/route)
- Visit the peace memorial area; reflective afternoon

Day 13 — Nearby island & local food

- Day trip to a nearby island (ferry — check schedule)
- Try a Hiroshima specialty for dinner

	Morning	Afternoon	Evening
Day 12
Day 13

Notes: _____

Page 12 — Day 14: Departure

- Final breakfast / last-minute souvenirs
